SLK

Compliance as a Service

Enabling system of checks that is templatized & configurable to ensure your data compliance

Introduction

Organizations worldwide need to adhere to data compliance for multiple reasons.
As organizations continue to scale their business, adhering to data compliance regulations becomes challenging. Data Compliance as a Service is needed for several critical reasons, some of them are regulatory requirements, complexity in handling large data, gaining competitive advantage, risk and reputation management by ensuring data security and protection. Organizations have a legal obligation to ensure compliance.

Challenges Faced in Managing Sensitive Data

- Evolving regulations that are geographically inconsistent
- Complex to retain system integrity in order to fulfill removal requests
- Difficult to implement and verify at scale across fragmented sources

Key Features

Compliance as a Service - SLK Offers an integrated platform for automatically discovering sensitive data based on compliance templates

- Configurable Templates for geographically inconsistent template needs
- Automatically tag data as PII, PCI or Confidential
- Easily locate distributed sensitive data
- Accurately track inventory data across different systems
- Easily discover data stored on prem or in the cloud
- Scalable and efficient replacement of manual process
- Simplify privacy and security reporting

Solution Overview

| Telephone Member | Social Security Member | Email Address | Credit Card Number | Address Information | Driving License Number | Medical Records | Geographic Location |

Solution Benefits

- Discover sensitive data across multiple sources & stores and maintain data security with referential integrity in a single reliable automated workflow
- Easy understanding of the complex data relationships through the knowledge graph way
- Eliminate the risk of ever-changing governance compliance templates using in built updateable compliance templates
- AI/ML based Intelligent workflow management which minimizes manual process

Get in touch! Write to us at hello@slkgroup.com for more details.

SLK

w w w . s l k s o f t w a r e . c o m